FRANÇOISTUNES

As the soundscape evolves, this 24-year-old is evolving with it. A singer, songwriter, rapper and producer, François is a creative mind overflowing with ideas and ambitions.

François' inspiration comes far beyond the realm of rap, evident in his genre-bending sounds that meld hip-hop, pop and electronic synths.

His fresh outlook on music is assembled from an interest in art, design and fashion and influenced by his diverse musical interests that span from Coldplay to Kanye West. Born to Zimbabwean parents, François grew up listening to an array of different artists.

Encapsulated by the need to make music, he started crafting beats at the age of 13 and learnt how to rap shortly after.

After the success of his 2015 debut self-produced EP 'Blue Skies', François released his second EP 'Blue Sky Paradise' under Melbourne's newest independent record label Alt. Music Group.

Since signing to Alt. Music Group, François has taken his alternative pop-rap anthems on the road, supporting the likes of Illy and has opened for artists such as, Alice Ivy, Horror Show and Joy Ride. François has also co-written tracks with Tkay Maidza and renowned international producer, Cardiak Flatline. His latest releases 'Tomorrow' and 'No Worries', off the 'Blue Sky Paradise' EP, have been featured on Triple R and praised by industry leaders.

François' music echoes tales of hard work, perseverance and champagne dreams of success. Under the creative direction of Alt. Music Group and with so much more music in the works, François is in his own lane to becoming one of Australia's hottest hip hop artists.
